

Bamberg–Budějovice–Budapest Workshop in the History of Philosophy
Budapest

HUN-REN Research Center for the Humanities,
Institute of Philosophy

21-22 October 2024

Venue: <https://abtk.hu/en/contact-info>
7th floor, Trapéz room (B 7.16.)

MONDAY, 21 OCTOBER

9.30 am Opening words

Chair: Marko J. Fuchs

9.45–10.30 Jiří Stránský
Human Soul in Plato's Timaeus

10.30–11.15 Benjamin Haghipour
Thomas Aquinas on the Legitimacy of Punishment

Coffee Break

11.45–12.30 Daniel Heider
Suárez on Angelic Mind Reading

12.30–13.15 Joshua Keatley
On the Distinction of Choice and Use in Suárez, Vásquez, and Poinset

Lunch Break

Chair: Daniel Heider

14.30–15.15 Marius Cormac Theiler
Nicholas of Cusa's Sign Theory and its Relevance for the Concept of causa sui

15.15–16.00 Marko J. Fuchs
Causa sui – On the Foundations of Philosophy in Nicolas of Cusa and Baruch Spinoza

16.15–17.00 Máté Juhász
Picking the Odd one Out: Contextual Considerations against Reading Spinoza as an Ethical Egoist

18.00 Conference Dinner

TUESDAY, 22 OCTOBER

Chair: Dániel Schmal

9.30–10.15 Dániel Attila Kovács
The Neoplatonic Background of Leibniz's Theory of the Degrees of Perceptions

10.15–11.00 Gabriel Jäger
Fichte on the Absolute

Coffee Break

11.30–12.15 Bettina Szabados
The Ethic of Sacrifice – György Lukács's Attempt To Create A Revolutionary Ethic

12.15–13.00 Ehsan Arzroomchilar
What Can Philosophy Offer to Disability Studies?